BURLINGTON DIVIDEND CAUSE

Extra 6 Per Cent and Increase from 7 to 8 Regular Has Buoyant Effect-Failure of Watson House Har Little Bearing on the Street-Grain Prices Are Again in a Decline.

New York, Sept. 5 .- The most vigorou upward movement seen in the marke for several weeks past set in this after noon and continued with unabated vigo up to the close of the day; result ing not only in substantial gains from last night's closing, but in the attain ment by some of the active leaders o a substantially higher level than they had before reached since the lowest point of the year were touched, about the mid dle of August.

The early trading gave no indication of the buoyancy which was to mark the close, opening quotations being in nearly all cases at declines from yesterday's final figures, and the course of prices dering the forenoon was reactionary under the influence of repeated attacks by pro fessional operators.

About the end of the first hour a feeble attempt was made to rally the market on the announcement that the suit agains the Standard Oil Company had been ad journed until September 17, but it was not until the failure of a stock exchange house was announced that the real un derlying strength of the market became
